MOVIE PEOPLE DROWN

Leading Lady and Camera Man Perish in the Arkansas.

Canon City, Colo., July 3.—Miss Grace McHugh, leading lady of the Colorado Motion Picture company and Owen Carter, assistant camera man, were drowned in the Arkansas river this week. The company was engaged in producing a feature picture, "Across the Border," based on Mexican events. Miss McHugh was fording the river on horseback. In midstream she became nervous at the swiftness of the water and checked the horse. The animal was forced under water and Miss McHugh was thrown into the stream. Carter leaped into the river and swam to her assistance. He reached her safely and guided her to a small sandbar on which both emerged, apparently safe. When members of the company reached the sandbar to remove the couple both had disappeared. Miss McHugh's body was seen floating in the river later but it could not be reached.

CONDUCTOR'S STORY.

Tells How His Train Was Held Up by Bandits.

Pendleton, Ore., July 3.—Conductor W. B. Fergus of the train held up near here said the masked men, each armed with two revolvers, boarded the rear Pullman at a small station. Deputy Sheriff McDuffey pulled his revolver when the two robbers entered his car and the shooting began. McDuffey was shot through the left side but not before he had shot and killed one of the robbers and wounded the other.

The wounded robber ran back to the express car where he told his leader he had been wounded and the two jumped from the train, taking with them all the money they found in the express car. The robbers obtained money and valuables from about a third of the men passengers but they did not rob any of the women.

"They made me signal the engineer to stop the train," said Conductor Fergus. "They then forced the Pullman conductor, all the porters, car sweepers and myself to walk to the express car where they succeeded in getting the express messenger to open the door."

"They ransacked the express car and got all the money. The leader of the trio told the two others to go through the coaches and holdup the passengers. A gold watch was found on the dead bandit. It had inscribed on its back, 'Hugh Whitney, 5-10-11.' Hugh Whitney is a noted desperado wanted for a long list of depredations in Montana, Idaho and Wyoming.

Most of the passengers managed to hide. The express car safe yielded about $200.

HARRIS WAS BANKRUPT

Theatrical Promoter Lost on the Titanic Owed $400,000.

New York, July 3.—Henry B. Harris, theatrical promoter, lost on the Titanic, according to an appraisal filed had property worth $355,448 and debts of $400,000—the estate has a deficit of $35,247. Irene Harris, widow, has her dower interest despite this.

"The Quaker Girl," lost $40,000 the first season. "The Arab" costing $18,000 to produce, was a failure. "Such a Little Queen," lost $12,000.

TO POISON CRICKETS.

College Professor Tells How to Kill Chirping Pests.

Manhattan, Kan., July 3.—That the black crickets, which are proving a pest in many parts of Kansas, may be destroyed by a poisoned bran mash, is the statement of George A. Dean, professor of entomology in the Kansas State Agricultural college. Reports have come to Professor Dean of extensive damage by crickets to curtains, clothing and fabrics both in dwelling houses and in dry goods stores.

The poisoned bran mash is made by mixing one pound of bran and one ounce of Paris green in a pan. Three ounces of syrup and a quarter of an orange, including the peel, are added to one and a half pints of water. The bran is then wet with this mixture.

Small amounts of the damp mash should be put in shallow pans or dishes and placed behind, or under, heavy pieces of furniture or in other places frequented by crickets. The mash should be distributed in the evening.

Another good bait, says Professor Dean, may be made of uncooked vegetables, such as carrots and potatoes, chopped up and poisoned with arsenic or Paris green.

In using poisoned baits, however, great care should always be exercised, particularly if there are children about the place.

HE BUNCOED ELKS.

Now the Check Artist Is in Dodge City Prison.

Dodge City, July 3.—F. E. Lockman, the man who recently worked the bogus check racket on a number of Dodge City Elks, is safely in the county jail here awaiting trial at the next regular session of the Ford county district court. Lockman was apprehended in Hutchinson, where the officers had been asked to intercept him. He was supposed to be selling insurance while in Dodge.

REGISTER FARM NAMES.

Value For Advertising Can Thus Be Protected.

Manhattan, July 3.—Any farmer may have the name of his farm registered upon payment of $1 to the county clerk, and no other farm in the county may then use this name. This is the statement of H. W. Davis, who teaches farm advertising in the Kansas State Agricultural college, and who has received numerous inquiries from farmers as to the method for registration of farm names in this state.

A number of other states, says Professor Davis, permits a farm name to be registered for the entire state. This makes the names much more valuable for advertising purposes, and Mr. Davis believes that a law providing for this system would be of great assistance in Kansas.

Farmers may, of course, register with the federal government the trade-mark which they use upon their products. Such registration prevents the use of the same mark by any other person in the United States.

SPIES MAY BE BARRED.

France Objects to Presence of U. S. Treasury Agents.

Paris, July 3.—The opinion prevails here that United States treasury agents would in future be excluded from France, because of the exposure of their methods, in the course of an appeal by Henry Monroe, a banker, against a jail sentence and fine for refusing to disclose the amounts paid in France by Miss Dolan of Brookline, Mass., for dresses seized by the American customs officers on their arrival in Boston.

The French foreign office some time ago made representations to the department of state, at Washington, in regard to the irregularity of the United States in maintaining secret agents in France, who were not recognized by the American embassy or consulate-general. Much comment, some of it in angry terms, appears in the press today about what is called the "business spy system of the United States."

MUELLER IS RUN DOWN

He Is Suspected of Murdering Albert Bieber, June 10.

Milwaukee, July 3.—Gustave Mueller, for whom the Milwaukee police have been looking since June 10, in connection with the murder of Albert Bieber, has been arrested on a farm near Eau Claire, Wis.

Bieber's mutilated body was found in the upper Milwaukee river on June 10, weighted down with a large stone, tied around the neck. Bieber had considerable money in a Cudahy bank and after the murder Mueller was accused of attempting to obtain the money through a sight draft at a Greenbay, Wis., bank.

The bank officials suspected everything was not right and asked Mueller to call the next day. He failed to call again and was traced into the upper peninsula of Michigan and back into Wisconsin, until he was arrested.

Burglar Proof.

"John—John, dear," whispered Mrs. Timmid, shaking her sleeping husband violently by the arm, "there's a burglar in the house!"

"Oh, well, let him burgle," returned John sleepily. "He can have the silver if he wants it, but the cuss isn't going to rob me of my sleep."—Judge.
